

Alliance Technical Group Acquires RSB Environmental, Expanding Environmental Consulting Services

May 29, 2024

Alliance Technical Group, a leader in environmental testing and compliance services, is excited to announce the acquisition of RSB Environmental, a premier environmental compliance and consulting firm based in Houston, TX. This strategic acquisition marks a significant milestone in Alliance Technical Group's mission to expand and enhance its service offerings, including its growing EHS Compliance business.

RSB Environmental built its stellar reputation for expertise by delivering broad-scale solutions, including its Comprehensive Health, Environmental, Safety System (C.H.E.S.S.) offering, making it a perfect fit for Alliance Technical Group's growing portfolio of compliance services. The addition of RSB Environmental to Alliance Technical Group bolsters its environmental consulting offering and introduces a monthly model for ongoing EHS compliance support, further solidifying Alliance's commitment to offering unparalleled environmental compliance support to its clients.

"We are excited to welcome our new teammates from RSB Environmental to the Alliance family," said Chris LeMay, CEO at Alliance Technical Group. "RSB Environmental's established expertise and dedication to compliance align perfectly with our mission. This acquisition allows us to provide a broader range of services and deepen our commitment to helping businesses navigate complex environmental regulations."

RSB Environmental will operate as an integral part of Alliance Technical Group, bringing its seasoned team and innovative approach to compliance under the Alliance banner. Clients of both organizations can look forward to the same high level of service and expertise they have come to expect, now backed by the combined resources and capabilities of the two firms.

Environmental Financial Consulting Group (EFCG) served as the exclusive financial advisor to Alliance in its acquisition of RSB Environmental.
