

Dunaway's growth in the Gulf Coast continues with the acquisition of PRD Land Development Services, LLC

June 03, 2024

Dunaway is pleased to announce the acquisition of PRD Land Development Services, LLC, an established and innovative civil engineering firm in Houston, Texas. The acquisition will strengthen Dunaway's civil engineering services and expand its footprint in Houston and the Gulf Coast region.

Growth in the Gulf Coast

Chief Operating Officer and Principal of Dunaway, Ross Eubanks, PE, SE, will lead the transition alongside Trent Perez, PE, Owner, and Founder of PRD. Eubanks previously served as Regional Executive for Central Texas, responsible for the growth and business operations of Dunaway's Austin and San Antonio offices, before spearheading the opening of Dunaway's Houston office in 2023. He is excited to continue to expand the firm's presence in the Houston area. "We are thrilled to join forces with PRD as we continue to expand our multi-discipline firm to serve our clients in the Houston market with technical excellence," explains Ross. "PRD has built a business on trust, experience, and proven success, and shares our vision and values as trusted client advisors. I am confident that our combined and fully integrated team will be able to assist Houstonians and impact our community in new and unique ways, solidifying our commitment to servicing the entire greater Houston area."
