

LJA Welcomes the Talented Team from McDonough Engineering

July 29, 2024

The McDonough Engineering team has joined LJA Engineering. Both McDonough and LJA are recognized leaders in providing civil engineering, design, and construction management services for site development, transportation, and municipal / public sector projects.

Based in Houston, McDonough Engineering has been recognized as an industry leader since 1977. With a team of dedicated employees, McDonough has successfully served the Texas Gulf Coast region providing their expertise on thousands of projects over the years. Their history and experience in providing design excellence, practical solutions, and client responsiveness is an asset to LJA as we continue to grow.

McDonough's employees will be joining different LJA sector teams based on their areas of expertise. This strategic integration will enhance and expand our depth of client services, allowing LJA to deliver even greater value.

“By combining our resources and knowledge, we are prepared to continue meeting and exceeding our clients' needs, schedules, budgets, and objectives.” said President and CEO of LJA, James Ross, PE. “We are excited about the opportunities this integration brings and the ability to provide even more comprehensive solutions to our clients.”
