Atwell acquires Terrascope Consulting

Natick, MA (February 4, 2025) – Atwell, a full-service consulting, engineering, and construction services firm serving the real estate & land development, power & renewable energy, and oil & gas markets, acquired the operations of Terrascope Consulting, adding expertise in engineering and surveying to its resources in the Southwest.

Founded in 2006 and based in Phoenix, Arizona, Terrascope brings expertise in multifamily, affordable housing, single-family, build-to-rent, industrial, and retail projects.

“We’re excited to join a strong team of professionals at Atwell,” said Dave Soltysik, Principal and Founding Member of Terrascope. “We’re very proud that a strong majority of our business is from returning clients. Our long-term relationships and commitment to high-quality results match well with Atwell’s approach. Alignment of mission and values is incredibly important to us.”

“Terrascope’s values and experience align tremendously well with Atwell,” said Ted Northrop, Senior Vice President at Atwell. “Our continued growth nationally and in the Southwest region makes the addition of Terrascope an outstanding fit. With Terrascope, we’re expanding our reach while continuing to provide expert service to our land development clients.”

Morrissey Goodale, a specialized management consulting and research firm exclusively serving the architecture, engineering, and environmental consulting industries, advised Atwell in the transaction.
